Report on "Odia Bhasara Prachinata" Seminar

Date: 01-10-2018

The Department of Odia had organized a one-day seminar on the topic - Odia Bhasara Prachinata for the students of Odia in particular and overall students in general.

The Indo-Aryan classical language forms around 98% of the population of Odisha and majorly forms a language in parts of West Bengal, Jharkhand, Andhra Pradesh and Chhattisgarh. With a long literary history and not having borrowed extensively from other languages, it becomes important for our concerned students to know about the language.

The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Biran Kumar Pradhan, Faculty, Dept. of Odia.

Minutes of the meeting was discussed by M. Sri. Giridhari Jena, Head, Dept. of Odia.

The seminar was chaired by Mr. Dhiren Kumar Mishra.

The Resource person for the day was Prof. Rajay Kumar Satpathy, Faculty, Dept. of Odia, Utkal University, Bhubaneswar who talked about the evolution of the language from Magadhi prakrit, persian and Arabic etc.

Vote of Thanks was offered by Mrs. Rajayanti Mahapatra, Faculty, Dept. of Odia.

Report on "Odia Ashmita Normana re Adikabi
Sarala Das" Seminar

Date - 29-09-2023

The Department of Odia had organized a one-day seminar on the topic - Odia Ashmita Normana re Adikabi Sarala Das for the students of Odia in particular and overall students in general.

Sarala Das was the par excellent propagator of an exclusive Indian culture. His treatise propounded the message of Aryan and post Aryan culture thus establishing a pure Odia identity since the time immemorial. The prime aim of the poet was to enlighten the people with Indian customs and traditions, tenets of Smriti and Shastras. He believed the King's rule should be just providing them happiness and peace. He hitched the prospects of the evanescent Odia language to the skies through his exploits in the realm of literature.

The session was chaired by the Principal, D.K.N. College, Branch - Sri Markandeswara Mahapatra

The welcome address was given by Dr. Anup Ranjan Mantha, Faculty, Dept. of Odia
