

Devi Kandala Nityananda College, Branch, Cuttack

Dept. of Sanskrit

Report on "Duryodhanasya Rajyan Sasanam Pranali"

Date: 13th Sept. 2019

The department of Sanskrit had organised one day Seminar on the topic - Duryodhanasya Rajyan Sasanam Pranali for the students of Sanskrit in particular & overall students in General.

The discussion was held to let the students know about the primary antagonist Duryodhana of the Hindu Epic - Mahabharat & the way he ruled over the Kingdom in the absence of the King Yudhishtir while he was on exile for thirteen years.

The speaker for the day was Dr. Subhadra Bhol, Faculty, Dept. of Sanskrit, Nachuni College, Khurda. Her session was highly impressive as she engaged the students with her questions & informative points. She discussed how a 'Guptachar' was sent by the Pandavas to keep an eye upon the Kuru-Sasana who revealed Duryodhana's rule to be just & opposed caste system. He made Karna the King & travelled to many parts of the Kingdom in disguise to understand the ground level situations. He was 'loyal friend & bitter foe'.

The welcome address was delivered by Smt. Manikata Dei, Head, Dept. of Sanskrit & the vote of thanks was offered by Smt. Suchanda Parrija, Faculty, Dept. of Sanskrit.

The session was highly impactful with maximum involvement of students.

Manikata Dei

Head

Suchanda Parrija

Principal
D.K.N. College

13.9.19
Principal

Devi Kandal Nityananda College, Erach, Cuttack
Dept. of Sanskrit.

Report on 'Sakuntalaya Pati Gruha Gamanam' Seminar
Date - 26 Nov. 2021

The Dept. of Sanskrit organized one day seminar on the topic - Sakuntalaya Pati Gruha Gamanam for the students of Sanskrit in particular and overall students in general. The discussion was held to let the students know the act of Shakuntala leaving for her husband - Dashyantha's palace at Hastinapura. The act brings home the truth of separation is always melancholic.

The welcome address was given by Smt. Mandata Dei, Head, Dept. of Sanskrit

The Expert of the day was Sh. Pradeep Kumar Mishra, Lect. of Sanskrit, Niali College, Niali. He describes the way Shakuntala feels while bidding farewell to both loving and non-loving things while she leaves for her husband's palace. Not only the plants, birds, animals, but also Sage Kanva, Arundhya and Priyamvada couldn't overcome their emotions. The permission that the flora and fauna of the hermitage grant Shakuntala to take leave is echoed in the songs of shama birds. Kanva feels dejected yet relieved as though a great debt had been paid off - an act of Indian tradition and culture. The session was highly insightful and involved maximum no. of students.

The seminar came to an end with vote of Thanks offered by Smt. Suchkunda Parija, Faculty, Dept. of Sanskrit.

Mandata Dei

Head

Suchkunda Parija.

Principal
D.K.N. College
Erach, Cuttack.
Principal

Dev. Khandala Nityananda College, Bhubaneswar, Cuttack

Dept. of Sanskrit

Report on "Kalidasa'sya Prakriti Barnana" Seminar

Date: 14th Sept, 2022

The Department of Sanskrit had organized a one-day Seminar on the topic - Kalidasa'sya Prakriti Barnana for the students of Sanskrit in particular & overall students in general.

The seminar was conducted for the students to gain knowledge about the classical Sanskrit author, often considered as ancient India's greatest poet & playwright. His deep insight into the heart of Nature merged wonderfully with his profound knowledge of the human heart.

The Welcome address was delivered by Smt. Manikata Dei, Head, Dept. of Sanskrit.

The speaker of the day was Sri Pitambara Sahoo, Faculty, Dept. of Sanskrit, D.G.B.K. College, Khandagiri. He engaged the students with the description of nature. The way Kalidasa used the images of endless fountain, the monsoon cloud, delicate plants & overall the land of Natural vegetation has been admired by the audience world wide.

The session was very interactive with max^m involvements of the students.

The seminar came to an end with a note of thanks given by Smt. Suchhanda Parija, Faculty, Dept. of Sanskrit.

Manikata Dei

Head

Suchhanda Parija

Principal
D.K.N. College
Bhubaneswar
14/09/22

Durikandala Nityananda College, Branch, Cuttack
Dept. of Sanskrit.

Report on "Yaksha Yudhisthira Sambada" Seminar
Date: 16th Nov. 2023

The Department of Sanskrit had organized a one-day Seminar on the topic - Yaksha Yudhisthira Sambada for the Students of Sanskrit in particular and overall Students in general.

The discussion focused on the episode called - Yaksha prashna from Mahabharata. It relates to the exchange of questions and answers between Yama in the guise of a Yaksha who poses certain difficult questions to Yudhisthira who gives the most fitting answers to those questions related to social values in general.

The welcome address was given by Smt. Manikata Dei, Head, Dept. of Sanskrit.

The Resource person of the day was Smt. Sharmati Das.

She gave insightful information about the social norms that has been presented so well in this episode.

Yudhisthira with his appropriate replies and positive attitude pleased the God of Death - Yama and was successful in bringing back to life all his brothers.

It's high time that Students should inculcate such life values in their life so as to maintain balance.

The Session ended with great applause from the audience. The vote of Thanks was offered by Smt. Suchkanda Paroja, Faculty, Dept. of Sanskrit.

Manikata Dei
Head
Suchkanda Paroja

Principal
D.K.N. College
Branch, Cuttack
16/11/23
Principal